

Valhalla Tree Farm 2010 Washington Tree Farmer of the Year

The Valhalla Tree Farm was named Outstanding Tree Farmer of the Year at the April 26, 2010 Washington Farm Forestry Association meeting.

The 75 acre Valhalla Tree Farm, located near Arlington, was purchased by Earl Ingebright in 1959. Now Earl and his son, David, are actively involved in managing the property. Additional details are available on their website, www.valhallatreefarm.com